MULTNOMAH

Adjunct Professor – Experiential Learning

Position Description: Instructor for 2-credit Experiential Learning class, Fall 2014. Course covers theories of experiential learning, the instructional usage of games, simulations, role-playing, and discovery learning; practices of adventure-based instruction including health and safety issues.

Minimum Requirements: Master's degree with experience teaching experiential learning or related courses in higher education. Women and minorities are especially encouraged to apply.
Institutional Information: Multnomah Bible College and Multnomah Biblical Seminary are schools of Multnomah University, etc….

Institutional Information: Multnomah Bible College and Multnomah Biblical Seminary are schools of Multnomah University, featuring a four-year coeducational, interdenominational Bible college and graduate-level seminary located in Portland, Oregon. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers B.A. degrees in 15 majors as well as three university M.A. programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. degrees. Multnomah University is accredited with the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), and the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). The Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is an affiliate with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU)

Compensation: $1,294 to $2,250 per semester based on contracted credit hours and earned degree.

Process: To request consideration, please complete the application on the Multnomah employment website: www.multnomah.edu/employment

Contact: Stanford Campbell, M.M. Christian Ministries Section Chair
scampbell@multnomah.edu
503-255-0332