

APPLICATION FOR ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Disability Services at Multnomah is committed to providing students with equal access to programs and services on our campus. A complete policy statement, disability definition, accommodation procedures, and expectations for students and faculty are available on the Disability Services website at <http://www.multnomah.edu/resources/disability-services/>. As the student, it is your responsibility to bring to Multnomah's attention the need for an accommodation by use of this request form.

Academic Accommodations requested (please be as specific as possible):

Non-academic Accommodations requested (please be as specific as possible):

From time-to-time, it is important to discuss your ADA plan with a professor, Academic Dean, or Student Services professional. Do you give the ADA Officer permission to share your disability with those that need to know on a very limited basis?

Yes No Initial: _____

I affirm that the information I have shared is true, I have reviewed and understand the ADA policy, the student and faculty expectations, as well as the documentation requirement. I also understand it is my responsibility to be in regular communication with the Disability Services office and I must request accommodations each semester via email to the ADA Officer.
