

Master of Arts in Counseling Program Assistant Professor in Counseling

- Position Description: Multnomah University Graduate Department in Counseling invites applications for a full-time tenure track Assistant Professor with an anticipated starting on (or before) July 1, 2019. The appointee will teach appropriate on-campus courses in counseling as assigned by the department chair, mentor students in the program, and collaborate with faculty and staff in the MAC program to envision and anticipate program growth.
- Minimum Requirements: Candidates should possess a doctorate in counselor education or be admitted to an accredited doctoral program in counselor education. The ideal candidate will have experience teaching in a higher education setting and be familiar with a variety of non-traditional educational delivery systems and modalities. Preferred candidates should be strong clinicians with a professional license (e.g., LPC, psychologist). All candidates must embrace the Protestant evangelical faith as listed in the university doctrinal statement. In addition, they should be able to demonstrate a strong commitment to the integration of faith and learning. Teaching excellence is a high priority with service, advising, and scholarship appropriate to the discipline is also expected. Minorities are especially encouraged to apply.
- Institutional Information: Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers B.A. degrees in 20 majors as well as four university M.A. programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. degrees. Multnomah University is accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is an affiliate with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).
- Compensation: Compensation commensurate with education and experience. Compensation includes Full Time Benefits, including Medical, Dental, Vision, Life and Long-Term Disability benefits beginning the first day of the month following 30 days of employment.
- To Apply: To request consideration, please complete the employment application. Multnomah University Online Application
- Contact: Dr, Kristen M. White, Director of the Master of Arts in Counseling Program
kwhite@multnomah.edu
This position will be posted until filled.