

Online Adjunct Instructors – School of Professional Studies

- Description: Multnomah University is seeking qualified individuals to serve as adjunct faculty members in its online programs. As a Christian university, we value faculty who can help students integrate faith and learning. All courses are pre-designed and eight weeks in length. Women and ethnic minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.
- Subject Areas: Psychology, Information Technology, Healthcare Administration, Management, Leadership, and various Liberal Arts Subjects (humanities, social science, math, and science).
- Minimum Requirements: The ideal candidate will possess a minimum of a master's degree (doctorate preferred) in a relevant field. Teaching experience preferred but not necessary. Agreement with the National Association of Evangelicals Statement of Faith required.
- Institutional Information: Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the university, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. Multnomah University is accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU).
- Compensation: Adjunct faculty are paid between $1,941 to $2,250 per course, depending on degree earned.
