

MULTNOMAH

Adjunct Faculty – Master of Arts in Counseling

- Position Description: Multnomah University is seeking qualified, practicing clinicians, to serve as adjunct faculty members in its Master of Arts in Counseling program. As a Christian university, we value faculty who can help students integrate faith and learning. Courses are 7 weeks in length and meet in the evening. Teaching experience is preferable, but not required. Women and ethnic minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.
- Minimum Requirements: Master's Degree in Counseling
- Institutional Information: Multnomah University includes undergraduate and graduate programs as well as Multnomah Biblical Seminary located in Portland, OR. All programs are coeducational and interdenominational. Founded in 1936, the college, graduate school, and seminary have established a renowned heritage of excellence in biblical education equipping Christian men and women to transform our culture and the world. The college offers B.A. degrees in 20 majors as well as three university M.A. programs. The seminary offers the M.A., M.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. degrees. Multnomah University is accredited with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). The Multnomah Biblical Seminary is accredited with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). In addition, Multnomah University is an affiliate with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU)
- Compensation: Adjunct faculty are paid between $1,800 to $2,100 depending on degree earned, for a 7-week, 3 credit hour course.
